Director

Kirk Slingluff is excited to take part in ShoeString Players' introductory season. Kirk moved to Colorado from New Jersey in pursuit of higher education. He is currently a graduate student at the University of Colorado getting his MA in Theatre and Performance Studies and writing his thesis on the work created by the Philadelphia Mummers. Kirk recently graduated from Rowan University (2022) with a BA in Theatre and minors in History and German Studies. Here he explored all aspects of theatre including creation, performance, management, and production. It is also where he fell in love with Directing. He directed/created his first public piece in September 2021, entitled The Artist's Eye. Previously, Kirk was an instructor and director at the Unitiive Theatre in Longmont, CO, directing eleven productions between adult, teen, and all-ages shows. Currently, he also works with The ArtsHub (Lafayette, CO) as a Production Manager and Kinesis Dance (Boulder, CO) as a summer theatre instructor. Kirk would like to thank Mom, Gram, and Loran for their continued love and support as he follows his dreams. He is excited to open this ShoeString Players' season with "The Lightning Thief: A Percy Jackson Musical" and hopes you all enjoy.

Movement Director

Alexandra Rose Brown is excited to choreograph The Lightning Thief for Shoestring Players. She graduated from Drew University in Madison, NJ with a BA in Theatre with minors in Dance and Music. Since then, she has performed in numerous productions across Colorado. She has worked with Loveland Opera Theatre, Unitiive Theatre, Ovation West, StageDoor Theatre, Jesters Dinner Theatre and more. Along with performing, she has choreographed numerous productions including The Music Man, Fiddler on the Roof, Addams Family, Joseph...Dreamcoat, and Beauty and the Beast. Currently, she is a gymnastics instructor primarily teaching gymnastics to children under five along with choreographing floor routines for their competition team. During the holidays, she can be seen performing for Christmas at the Gaylord Rockies in Aurora, CO. She is excited to continue sharing her love of theatre and dance with the next generation of performers!

Special Thanks

ShoeString Players would like to thank Gina Trujillo and the Main Street School for graciously allowing us to teach, rehearse, and perform in this incredible Auditorium.

Thank you to Scott Stewart from SVVSD IT Department for letting there be light!

Tawnya Marley and Ace Marley for working so patiently and diligently to transfer our Tech.

A deep thank you to composer and lyricist Rob Rokicki for taking extra time to meet with and inspire our students.

And, a special thanks to Jason Atkins, Hunter Daboll, Loren Parker, Alex Brown, Risa Jones, and the families of our staff members. Your love, time, and support keeps us going. We couldn't do this without any of you.

From the bottom of our hearts,

Thank you.

Sincerely,
ShoeString Players Staff
